5. Review of Developments
in Eastern Europe

The members exchanged views on developments in Eastern Europe. Mr. Armstrong referred to the desirability of a review by the Board of National Estimates of extant estimates touching on these areas, with a view to suggesting to the IAC possible revisions in the light of recent developments. In this connection, Mr. Kent stated that the Board was preparing an NSC briefing note for Mr. Dulles which dealt with such developments, and noted that this paper might be circulated later to the IAC members for information and possible coordination.

7. Report on
